MOKO.mobi signs on its second major Indian carrier, !dea Cellular

MOKO.mobi to launch directly to !dea's 31.5 million mobile customer base, firmly establishing its presence in the burgeoning Indian mobile market

Sydney, 26 March 2009 – MOKO.mobi Limited (ASX: MKB) today is pleased to announce that it has signed an agreement with !dea Cellular, one of India's largest mobile networks.

MOKO.mobi will now become directly available to more than 31 million !dea mobile customers, they will be able to interact with other Indian MOKO.mobi users, as well as connect to the global MOKO.mobi user-base.

"This deal demonstrates MOKO.mobi's appeal to large international carriers in the high-growth emerging markets, and with our recent Reliance announcement firmly establishes MOKO.mobi's presence in one of the world's most prolific mobile markets", said Ian Rodwell, MOKO.mobi Limited's CEO.

"India is possibly the fastest growing mobile market in the world right now, with over 370 million subscribers and expanding rapidly," he said.

According to data released by the Telecommunications Regulatory Authority of India (TRAI), there were over 374 million subscribers at the end of November 2008.

This is MOKO.mobi's second deal in as many weeks in the Indian market and it demonstrates MOKO.mobi's increasing global distribution momentum. MOKO.mobi recently launched in Philippines on Smart Mobile and has performed strongly. During 2009, MOKO.mobi will also be launching across multiple America Movil carriers throughout Central and Latin America with its first deployment in Brazil due in the first half of '09.
